TODD O'MALLEY SPEAKS OUT ON THE ISSUES...

DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE:

Prosecuting drug dealers has not solved the terrible drug problem in our community. If we are to stop the ominous spread of drug and alcohol abuse among our young people, we need e drug and alcohol prevention and prosecution unit within our District Attorney's office to coordinate various investigations by local police agencies, to follow the chain of distribution beck to the large scale dealers; to work within our school districts to prevent the use and distribution of drugs in school and at school

For the past four years, this problem has spreed from our college campuses to our high schools, our funior high's and our middle schools. We need prevention, as well as prosecution. The time is now...

VIOLENT CRIMES:

Anyone using a gun in the commission of a crime must be treated severely. How often have we read about the neighborhood grocery or convenience store that has been robbed et gunpoint? pledge to never plea bargain with anyone caught in the commission of an armed robbery and to ergue on behelf of our citizens at the time of sentence for the meximum penalty. REPEAT OFFENDERS:

Progressive communities, all over America, have Instituted programs to deal with repeat clienders. It's time we did the same. We should catalogue all repeat offenders end when one is arrested, immediately assign an assistant District Attorney to follow the case through the judicial process to insure that ball commensurate with the crime and the past history of the offender is set; and that the case is handled as quickly es possible with a
